How to Reach the Conference Venue

To reach the conference venue, first travel to Napoli Centrale (Piazza Garibaldi) from the airport, and then proceed from Napoli Centrale to the meeting location. Follow these steps:

From Fiumicino Airport:

Trenitalia operates a railway line connection from Fiumicino Airport to Roma Termini (the main railway station in Rome). The "Leonardo Express" departs from Fiumicino Airport and takes approximately 30 minutes to reach Roma Termini.

Numerous trains are available from Roma Termini to Napoli Centrale. High-speed trains can reach Napoli Centrale in about one hour. For schedules and tickets, visit Trenitalia or Italo. Once you arrive at Napoli Centrale (Piazza Garibaldi), proceed to step 3 below.

From Napoli International Airport (Capodichino):

To get to Napoli Centrale (Piazza Garibaldi), you can choose either a taxi or a bus. The ALIBUS service connects Capodichino to the main train station at Piazza Garibaldi. For the bus schedule, visit ANM (<https://www.anm.it/>).

After reaching Piazza Garibaldi, follow the instructions in step 3.

From the Main Train Station (Piazza Garibaldi):

To reach the Conference Venue from Piazza Garibaldi, you have several options:

On foot: It takes about forty minutes.

By Taxi: Available directly outside the station.

By Metro: Catch the metro at Piazza Garibaldi (Line A) to Piazza Municipio stop. From Piazza Municipio, either catch a bus to Via Partenope or walk for about 15 minutes, which is recommended.

These directions should assist you in navigating your way to the conference venue smoothly.
